

Loyalist – I Never Let Go

Photograph Essay (35mm still images darkroom-printed)

Twelve 16 x 20 inch images

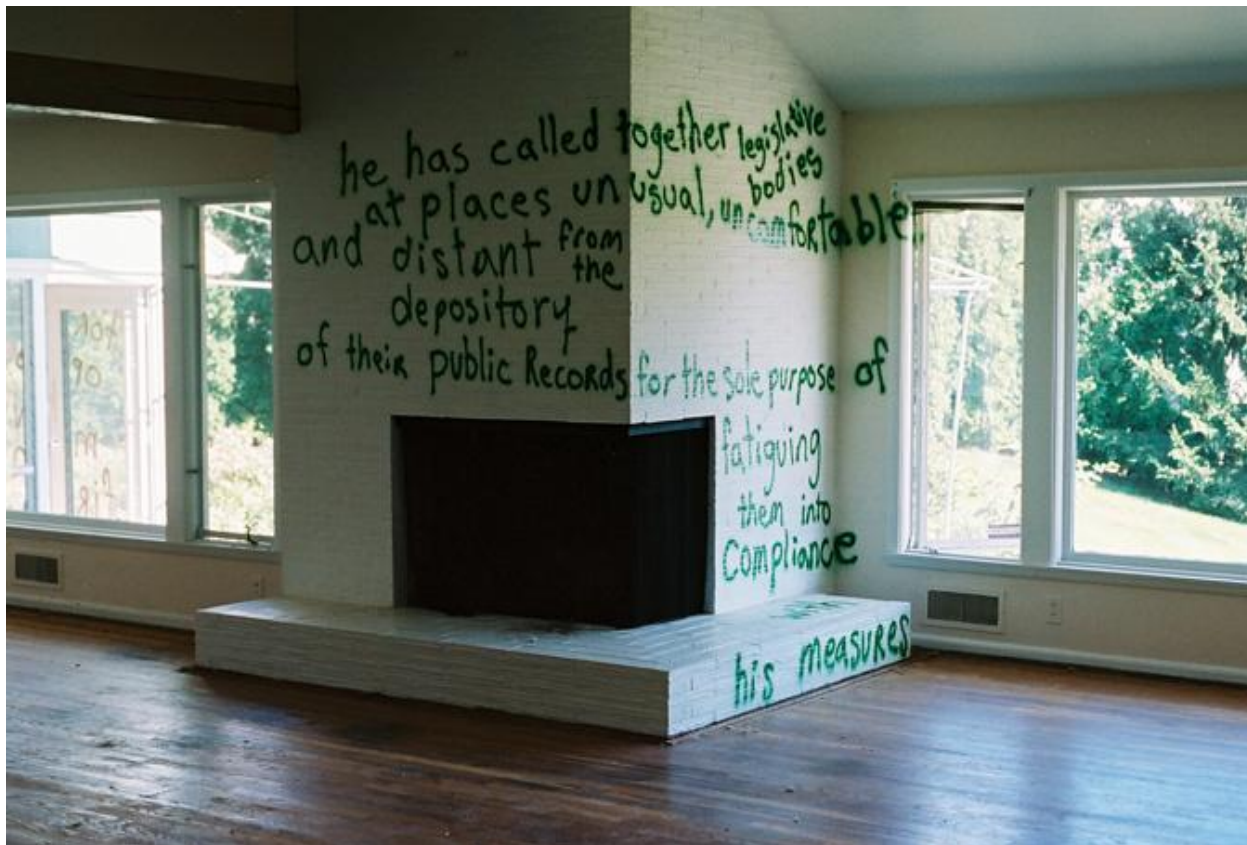

2009

A photograph essay of empty domestic spaces that the artist spray-painted with phrases from the US Declaration of Independence, then documented on 35 mm still film. Phrases like this one: "He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people." The artist is borrowing the text from an official historical document in order to speak about personal experiences with dependency.
